Dear Ms. Yde:

As an experienced mental health counselor, whose entire career has been spent with the education and developmental needs of teenagers, I am pleased to endorse and recommend the program Real Life 101.

I have viewed Real Life 101 and believe that the program provides a provocative learning experience for teenagers. The program is straightforward contemporary resource for teenagers looking to learn about the myriad careers that are available to them if they apply themselves and set realistic goals for themselves. Unfortunately, too often our youth are not exposed or given information in high school about various career opportunities available to them and hence are too often set to fend for themselves to a less than optimum end. Real Life 101 helps to fill this void and I would recommend it to be available to the mass market. The program also has a web link available to follow up on the information presented to them that they can view at their leisure. This is a very positive aspect of the program.

The capsules are quick, crisp and informative with the presenters dressed in "Real Life" clothing. It is just one more excellent resource to help our youth.

Sincerely,

Diane Phillips, MS.

Diane Phillips is a retired master level mental health counselor. For 36 years she worked in schools, day treatment centers and juvenile delinquent centers. Her areas of expertise are drug abuse, sexual abuse and clients with suicidal ideation. She has been a spokesperson to the board and local community for a 50 year old mental health foundation and has been sought out for expert opinions for both the written and electronic media. She is proud of the opportunity to counsel the many students she has served and especially proud of the few success stories along the way.
