

how to Do florida SEASON 10 SYNOPSIS

1001 - how to Do Everglades Camping

Everglades Area Tours sets Chad up with everything he needs to camp in the Everglades, including a guide, Naturalist Don McCumber, who teaches him all about the Everglades. The segment includes fishing and battle with a shark at night. Chad kayaks thru the Ten Thousand Islands and visits a shell midden created by the Calusa tribe thousands of years ago. Chad goes to the Marco Island Historical Museum to learn more about the Calusa tribe.

1002 - how to Do Tampa Riverwalk

On the way into town, Chad stops at Tabanero Cigar to buy a cigar, but ends up staying to make his own! He then heads to the Florida Aquarium, where he'll go diving with sharks, before stopping by Fermented Reality Biergarten in Sharkman's Wharf to chat with the brewmaster. Chad later runs into a local influencer who gives him a tour of the downtown area via an Eboat.

1003 - how to Do Mullet Run

The mullet run is one of the greatest fish migrations in the world, and this year Chad had to be part of it. Chad joins up with YouTube star Josh Jorgenson in South Florida, where he divulges his secret to fishing the mullet run using a drone to find the predator fish! Chad and Josh run miles all along the beach, all to catch one of the biggest snooks of Chad has ever caught.

1004 - how to Do Bass Fishing

Chad will explore transportation in Sumter County when he takes flight from Free Flight Airport, then makes his way through The Villages via a golf cart. Then he will go bass/bowfishing in Lake Panasoffkee before heading off to Whispering Oaks Winery to taste 8 different wines - all made from blueberries!

1005 - how to Do Florida Keys Family Vacation

We're headed to the southernmost region in the U.S. as Chad Crawford and his family show you how to do many fun activities in the Florida Keys! Plus, Chef Justin Timineri brings you his recipe for Key West Pink Shrimp.

1006 - how to Do River Camping

Chad takes his youngest daughter, Kendall, on her first overnight camping trip, complete with a canoe trip down the Econ River. Along the way they learn about their surroundings from environmental specialists before meeting up with an airboat captain, who takes them to the Jolly Gator Fish Camp to cap off their epic adventure.

1007 - how to Do Florida Keys Events- Tiny Houseboating)

Chad recounts his favorite events in the Keys. Then, it's off to DeLand, where Kristy surprises Chad with a Tiny Houseboat Adventure! Chad later meets up with a local artist in Downtown DeLand; together they hit up three of DeLand's hot spots - South of NY Market, BakeChop, and Persimmon Brewery

1008 - how to Do the Shellfish Trail

Chad explores the Big Bend Shellfish Trail, participating in a different shellfish experience in each of the four counties - Levy, Dixie, Taylor, and Jefferson. From clams, oysters, and scallops, to kayaks, boats, and personal cooking lessons, this is an adventure for the ages!

1009 - how to Do Sailfishing

Chad goes all-out on this exciting Keys episode - he goes sailfishing, releases turtles into the Atlantic Ocean, and participates in Coral Restoration - all in a quest to explore sustainability.

1010 - how to Do Spring Diving

Chad stays in downtown Lake City at the newly renovated Blanche Hotel and hops around to the 5 best springs in Rum Island - ending with an amazing cavern dive at Blue Hole. He heads over to Halpatter Brewing Company before visiting Fifth Generation Farms, where he can take a cooking class, make his own cutting board with a woodworker, and help the beekeeper snag some honey from the bees.

1011 - how to Dive with Goliath Groupers

Join host Chad Crawford, a lucky fan, and some professional divers as they search for and swim with Goliath Groupers off of Deerfield Beach.

1012 - how to Do Jet Surfing

Chad goes jet-surfing for the first time at JetSurf Orlando, after a crash-course on a powered surf board. Then he heads over to Bountiful Farms, a family-owned farm and bistro where he picks his own produce for his meal and feasts on beef that is 100% cracker cattle. Chad ends his trip at Suncreek Brewery, Clermont's first craft brewery.